The women declared that their action was a protest against "the forcible feeding for which this beast is responsible."

Dr. Forward refused to charge the women with assault, but the police detained them on a charge of disorderly conduct. Once before, October 11, 1913, Dr. Forward was attacked in a similar manner.

An arson squad of suffragettes early today burned a large cricket pavillor at Earrisfield, southwest of London. Another arson squad set fire to a country residence near Belfast, but the blaze was discovered and extinguished with small damage.

Two Managing Editors Assaulted.

BELFAST, Ireland, June 8.-Militants today assaulted managing editors of two of the leading newspapers of Belfast which had criticised the militant campaign. Two well dressed women, one of them a giantess, went to the Belfast them a giantess, went to the Belfast Telegraph office and were ushered into the editor's room. Without speaking a word the larger one walked up to Mr. Stewart, the managing editor, and with her clenched fist knocked him out of his chair. At the same time her companion hurled a mucilage bottle at his head. The women then went to the News Letter office and made a similar attack on Mr. Anderson of that newspaper. He has since been confined to bed and is under surgical treatment.

POLICE COURT IS HELD TO HAVE JURISDICTION

Justice Barnard Quashes Writ of Certiorari in Case of Milk Dealers.

Justice Barnard of the District Su Court today squashed the writ of cer forari issued against Judge Mullowny of the Police Court for a review of the proceedings in the milk cases pending in Police Court. William A. Hartranft. the petitioner, questioned the jurisdiction of the Police Court to try the charges the petitioner, questioned the jurisdiction of the Police Court to try the charges against him of violating the pure food against him of violating the parameter and drugs act, because there were seven and drugs act, because there were seven and drugs act. possible punishment beyond the power of the Police Court to impose.

Through Attorneys Henry E. Davis and Matthew E. O'Brien the petitioner noted an appeal from the decision of fustice Barnard He gave a supersedeas bond of $500, which will have the effect of further delaying the case in the Police Court until the District Court of Appeals has disposed of the speak.

View of the Court.

Justice Barnard, in his opinion suashing the writ of review, declares himself bound on the question of jurisliction by the decision of the Court of Appeals in the Huyler case. There the appellate court held that the Police Court is a proper court of the United States for the trial and punishment of offenders against the provisions of the pure food and drugs let.

If the court has jurisdiction to try a single offense against the statute, the justice points out, it may not be deprived of its jurisdiction because the justice points out, it may not be de-prived of its jurisdiction because the information contains seven separate counts alleging independent violations of the act.

Would Be Parallel Case.

"If seven different informations were filed, instead of one information with seven counts, it seems to me that the exact question would be raised that is raised now," said the court: and whether there is more than one paper whether there is more than one paper in which the offenses are charged, or whether there is one paper with seven distinct paragraphs, can really make no difference in point of law."

Assistant United States Attorney Howe and Special Assistant Cobb represented the government.
